Co-created by Calista/Calista Ascension® from Scotland and a world peace activist/visual artist, Marie Fourzali from Lebanon

Biographies:

Mary Verdi (Vocals, Keyboard, Guitar, Songwriter) is based in the Berkshires. She first stepped onto the stage at the age of 3 in her father's opera and musical theatre productions in the Midwest. She began her professional path in Nashville as Reba McEntire's assistant, after graduating from Belmont University. Mary traveled with Kings Productions as a Singer/Dancer through her 20's and began writing songs at the age of 28. She has 7 CDs that have culminated into 1.6 million YouTube views. She has appeared on EWTN, The Pentagon, Fenway Stadium (her sons' favorite) and has sung duets with Livingston Taylor & Larry Gaitlin. Mary has been certified as a Sacred Prayer Practitioner and holds two certifications in Angel Healing®. www.maryverdi.com

Eileen Markland (Violin/Viola/Penney Whistle) is a versatile performer, recording artist, and dedicated music educator, known for her extensive experience and active involvement in a wide array of music projects. Eileen has performed with a diverse range of artists, including the Berkshire Symphony, Albany Symphony, Binghamton Symphony, Kilashandra, Misty Blues, The Jolly Ranchers, Ravin' Mavens, and the Berkshire Trio. Eileen is celebrated for her fearless stage presence, remarkable versatility, beautiful tone, and soulful interpretations. With a focus on creating a sense of peace and inclusion through her music, she believes in the transformative power of music to bring people together. Eileen and Mary have been collaborating for over 18 years.

Adrian Bennett

Drummer/Percussionist received his first drum kit at the age of 8 and has had a passion for music ever since. As a self-taught drummer, it was his love of world music that built the foundation for his craft. From his roots in Oklahoma to New England, Adrian has led workshops for children and adults for the top holistic resort/spa/retreat centers. His recording and performing Kirtans for over two decades within Indian Yoga Traditions and West African styles has led him to perform with Mickey Hart, Babatunde Olantunji, Zakir Hussein, Bhagavan Das, Russill Paul, John Dekadt and many other notable Kirtan singers. This is Adrian's first tour with Mary.

Mary Verdi's childhood training was under the direction of the late William B. Handley, a symphony conductor who introduced Mary to many operas/musicals creating her love of the stage. Mary wrote a one-woman play/musical about her life and the angelic thread throughout her music. This current tour, Angels Calling, was created from that play.
